CONSTITUTION AND RULES

(adopted July 14th, 1932, and amended July 13th, 1933.)

1. The Society shall be called the Medical Society of Individual Psychology.
2. Object.—The primary object of the Society shall be the study and discussion of Individual Psychology in its medical aspects, but membership shall neither require nor imply formal adherence to any particular school of psychology.
3. Meetings.—These shall be held at least once a month during the session extending from October of each year to July of the following year.
4. Membership.—Any duly qualified medical practitioner shall be eligible as a member. Candidates for membership shall be proposed and seconded by existing members and their names, if approved by the Committee, shall be submitted for election at the next ordinary meeting of the Society.
The subscription for members shall be one guinea per annum, payable on election and in each subsequent October.
5. Associate Membership.—Medical Students shall be eligible for election as Associates pending qualification, but shall not be eligible for membership of the Committee.
The subscription for Associates shall be 10s. 6d. per annum.
6. Management.—The Management of the Society shall be vested in a Committee not exceeding nine which shall consist of the officers specified in Rule 7, and other elected Members. Five shall form a quorum.
7. The Officers shall be a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer, Editor, and Secretary, all of whom shall be elected annually.
8. The other Members may each hold office for two years, but shall not be eligible again for election until after the expiration of one year.
9. The Proceedings of the Society shall be recorded in the quarterly issues of Individual Psychology Pamphlets. One copy of each pamphlet shall be free to each Member and Associate. Papers read before the Society shall not be published elsewhere without the permission of the Committee.
10. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held in July of each year, when the Committee for the next Session shall be elected.
